The bathroom is increasingly becoming a place for tranquillity and relaxation. As a result, notions of how such spaces are designed are having to be reconsidered too. The atmosphere of a space plays an increasingly important part alongside purely functional requirements.

Factors such as “natural quality”, “simplicity” and “wellbeing” are setting new standards both in the domestic sphere as well as in hotels and public areas. Growing significance is attached to the process of selecting and combining natural materials, finishes and colors. FSB is addressing this trend in the design of its METRIC® range of bathroom accessories.

The METRIC® design is deliberately understated, being defined by geometric shapes and high quality materials. The contrast between round roses and rectangular support profiles is a striking design feature that runs through the entire range. The combination of round functional parts and the supports made of rectangular profiles underscores the clear division of the system’s constituent parts.

Its astutely balanced proportions have a soothing effect and blend harmoniously with a variety of design concepts. Ergonomic criteria have been taken into account wherever they are an aid to fluent sequences of movements. The holder for the toothbrush mug, for instance, tilts towards the user, thus making it easier to remove the mug.

METRIC® is supplied in stainless steel satin finish or polished. Besides looking good, stainless steel boasts an authenticity that harmonises particularly well with natural materials such as wood or granite and is excellently suited to well-appointed bathroom schemes. Stainless steel rightly lays claim to being exceedingly hard wearing, corrosion resistant, easy to look after and durable.

The quality with which FSB works stainless steel draws on decades of experience gained as a manufacturer of well-designed, finely machined hardware for doors and windows. This expertise has found its way into the design and production of the METRIC® range of bathroom accessories.

Fastening

The base rose features two parallel longitudinal slots for optimum dimensional coordination and is screwed to the wall with the fastenings supplied. The cover rose is then placed on top and aligned with the patterning as required. The final optical adjustment of the working parts is performed by firmly tightening the socket screw against the tensioning bolt.

As an alternative to conventional screw fastening, FSB also offers attachment by means of a bonding technique that is highly adhesive and facilitates residue-free removal.

Material & Finishes

FSB 6204
Stainless steel, satin (630)

FSB 6205
Stainless steel, polished (629)

The generic term “stainless steel” embraces over 100 different rust and acid resistant steels. We use a chromium-nickel steel in the ErgoSystem that bears the material No. 1.4301 in conformity to DIN 17440. It contains approx. 18% chromium and 8% nickel. This is an alloy that has proved its worth in the construction sector.

Properties that speak for themselves

Stainless steel is just the thing for use in bathrooms and sanitary spaces owing to its surface being extremely corrosion-resistant, resisting bumps and scratches however roughly used, showing little wear even if in constant use, and – primarily on account of its chromium and nickel content – being very easy to look after. An invisible passive film forms on the surface that is even said to have disinfectant properties. FSB supplies its METRIC® in the finishes stainless steel satin (FSB 6204) and stainless steel polished (FSB 6205). The stock stainless steel satin version is particularly resilient. The stainless steel polished variant is an environmentally friendly alternative to chrome-plated finishes.
